JAMES ALLEN'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Child Protection Policy Statement

James Allen's Girls' School (including James Allen's Preparatory School) fully recognises the contribution it makes to Child Protection and is committed to taking all reasonable measures to ensure that risks to its pupils' welfare are minimised.

The statutory framework for child protection was established in The Children Act (1989). The duty of Independent School proprietors and/or governors to safeguard and promote the welfare of children who are pupils at the school was explicitly stated in the Education Act 2002. Independent Schools are also recommended to follow the DfES guidance published as Safeguarding Children in Education (2004) and Safeguarding Children: Safer Recruitment and Selection in Education Settings (2007).

The School aims to:

- Provide a safe educational environment for pupils
- Maintain vigilance in detecting abuse and operate clear procedures for all staff to follow in cases of suspected abuse
- Ensure that pupils who are vulnerable, at risk and/or likely to suffer significant harm are identified and appropriate action is taken to keep them safe
- Monitor effectively pupils who are vulnerable or at risk
- Promote an ethos in which pupils feel safe, feel able to talk openly and are listened to
- Prevent unsuitable people working with children
- Promote, and share with parents and pupils, safe practice
- Ensure that all parents and guardians are aware of the School's child protection responsibilities
- Ensure that proper written records are kept and maintained confidentially of any child protection concerns and cases.

All those who are to be employed by the School or who will come into unsupervised contact with pupils as volunteers are subject to checks through the Criminal Records Bureau. A rigorous checking of qualifications and references will also be undertaken by the School before offering anyone employment.

Appropriate general training on Child Protection issues will be provided at regular intervals to all members of staff and specialist training will be attended by the designated contact in accordance with statutory requirements.

James Allen's Girls' School, as a result of its location, comes under the Southwark Area Child Protection Committee (ACPC). Regardless of where a pupil actually lives, any case must be referred to the Southwark Social Services Department. All contact with the Social Services must be made through the Designated Child Protection Contact, Mrs Marion Gibbs, the Headmistress, or in her absence through her Deputy, Mrs Deborah Bicknell. The School has a nominated Child Protection Governor: Ms Joanna Dodson QC.

Any member of staff who has knowledge or suspicion that a pupil is suffering significant harm or is at risk of significant harm should refer their concerns immediately to the designated contact. It is not appropriate for staff to conduct any kind of investigation or to ask leading questions of a pupil. It is not possible to promise a pupil confidentiality as one is obliged to pass on information if a pupil may be at risk. However, child protection issues should never be discussed with anyone other than the designated contact (or later the official investigation team). Fuller guidance is available in the Southwark Safeguarding Children Board documentation, copies are available in the Staff Room and School Office.
