

Year 13 Art Exhibition

Year 13 artists were pleased to present their work to the school and visitors from 7th December to 11th December 2007. This was an exhibition of work using a wide and varied range of media where pupils had worked around their individual theme, a culmination of their studies since the start of the term. The following photographs show the Private View.

