

Full Time

Required from January 2024 or April 2024

Do you have a passion for life and learning? If so, our inspirational teaching team at JAGS is looking for a colleague to join the Sports department. Your dynamic and creative approach will help encourage and champion today's young sportswomen across Years 7 to 13 in this, one of the UK's leading independent schools.

With its distinctive heritage as the oldest independent girls' school in London, James Allen's Girls' School, JAGS, provides a forward-thinking and contemporary education for over 1100 girls aged 4 to 18. Located in the London borough of Southwark, JAGS has a diverse school community and is committed to inclusive recruitment and inclusion in the workplace. Our school aims, both in and out of the classroom, are clear:

To celebrate our diverse and inclusive community

To champion social awareness and sustainability

To empower courage, creativity and compassion in each student

To inspire aspirational and authentic lifelong learners and leaders

To nurture respectful, resilient and kind individuals

If this matches your educational vision, then this is the perfect time to join the Sports department. Our community benefits from excellent facilities, including a Sports Hall, Rock Climbing wall, Swimming Pool, full sized hockey pitch and many acres of green outside space. Physical Education is taught by specialist teachers to all pupils from Year 7 to 13 and Physical Education is a popular choice at GCSE level.

At KS4 we follow AQA specification for our examination groups and, as you would expect from this highly selective school, our GCSE results are outstanding. At JAGS, however, we believe there is so much more to education than simply exam results. The department believes strongly in exercise and opportunity for all, alongside catering for our elite performers in both our core sports and those that are newer to our provision. Throughout our teaching we aim to build and embed a love of sport that pupils will take with them beyond their teenage years and into adulthood.

Teamwork plays an important role within the Department: the staff love to enhance the experience of the students by sharing good practice, resources and ideas. We are looking for a well-qualified graduate to join this exceptional department who shares our vision, is passionate about sport, and who will bring their own individuality to this warm and supportive team.

In addition, any prospective candidate must show an active commitment to the values and expectations of our school community and to the welfare of the pupils within it. The enthusiasm to assist in a strong co-curriculum is an important quality of all who work at JAGS.
